

UNIONIZED MEXICO WOULD AID PEACE

Asserts Mexican Labor Delegation At Baltimore Convention

American Federation of Labor Meeting Adjourns—Will Meet in Buffalo in 1917—All old Officers are Re-elected.

BALTIMORE, Md., Nov. 25.—That the spread of the trades union movement in Mexico would go far toward keeping that country and the United States at peace was the substance of an address shortly before the final adjournment of the American Federation of Labor convention by Carlos Lovelace, a fraternal delegate from Yucatan, Mexico.

Buffalo was chosen the meeting place for the 1917 convention and the following officers were re-elected unanimously, no other names having been presented:

President—Samuel Gompers.
First Vice-President—James Duncan.

James O'Connell, second vice-president; D. A. Hayes, third vice-president; Joseph F. Valentine, fourth vice-president; John R. Alpine, fifth vice-president; H. B. Perham, sixth vice-president; Frank Duffy, seventh vice-president; William Green, eighth vice-president; John B. Lennon, treasurer, and Frank Morrison, secretary.

Fraternal delegates elected to the next British trades union congress: John Golden, New York, president of the United Textile Workers; Frank Farrington, president of the Illinois branch United Mine Workers.

Fraternal delegate to the next Canadian trade labor congress: Emanuel Koveskie, Rochester, N. Y.

The report of a special committee appointed to prepare a statement of the principles upon which the federation declares its position with respect to "militarism" was adopted unanimously.

"The American trades-union movement is convinced by the experience of mankind," says the report, "that militarism even in its less horrid manifestations brutalizes those influenced by the spirit of the institution.

"We are unalterably opposed to any form of physical training or any quality of mental education which would tend to inculcate the spirit of militarism. The child's immature and impressionable mind must not be taught to think, except with horror upon the killing of human beings. To arouse the thought that any of their school hours are devoted to preparation for the possible use of arms against their fellowmen is to brutalize their instincts and subvert the influence of the necessary lessons of humanity, peace and good will which it is the duty of our public schools to impress upon them."

HEALTH DEPARTMENT RAIDS WAREHOUSES

Chicago Declares War on Cold Storage Plants

Raids Based on Long Ignored Ordinance Which Restricts Time Foods May Be Kept in Cold Storage—Partly Due to Attitude of "Egg King."

CHICAGO, Nov. 25.—War against the high cost of living became militant here today with simultaneous raids by the city health department against three of the largest cold storage warehouses in the city. The raids were based on a city ordinance long ignored, which places a restriction on the time foods may be kept in cold storage and were due partly, it was said to the attitude of James E. Wetz, a wholesaler, so-called egg king, who is said to be holding more than 72,000,000 eggs.

"I've got them, what are you going to do about it?" was Wetz' answer to investigators who sought to discover what quantity of foodstuff was in storage in the present time of high prices.

The ordinance prohibits the storage of eggs for more than ten months. Examination by fifty investigators who conducted the raids, revealed only two or three questionable eggs, but showed that many millions, including many stored by Wetz were put away in March and April.

"Wetz will be obliged to throw these on the market by January 21st," said Dr. John Dill Robertson, health commissioner, "and my advice to the people is to stop using eggs until he begins to market them. I will see that they are not held in cold storage a minute more than ten months and that when they do go on the market they are fit for consumption."

Women of the political equality league adopted a resolution today declaring that "eggs at fifty cents a dozen are prohibitive" and agreeing to buy none at that price.

GENERAL TREVINO STILL HOLDS CHIHUAHUA CITY

Villa and Bandits Have Besieged City for Three Days

Suspension of Wire Communication With the City Indicates Villa Has Moved Around to the North and Is Attacking From That Side—City Lined Strongly Fortified on the North.

JUAREZ, Mex., Nov. 25.—Rumblings of cannon reported to the telegraph operators at San Juan station by General Francisco Gonzales at military headquarters here convinced the civil and military officers that General Trevino, Carranza commander still held Chihuahua City tonight at the close of three days' siege by Villa and his bandits.

Aside from this information the commanding officers in Juarez were as much in the dark tonight as to the day's developments in the state of Chihuahua.

The federal telegraph line which runs into the military headquarters at Juarez has been silent since 10 o'clock this morning when communication with Chihuahua City was interrupted soon after General Trevino sent a personal message to Mrs. Trevino, assuring her of his safety.

The station agent at San Juan ordered by General Gonzales to send a runner into the city tonight and ascertain the developments of the day and to report them over the military line upon the return of the courier. The suspension of wire communication with Chihuahua City is considered by Carranza military officers here to indicate that Villa has moved around to the north and is attacking from that side in the hope of avoiding the curtain of fire which the Carranza artillery has been pouring into the ranks of the bandits.

Americans familiar with the topography of the city say Villa will be able to make his way into the city proper from the north without encountering artillery fire. This part of the city is said to be less strongly fortified than the south, east and west.

Before the telegraph line was cut brief reports of the third day's battle for possession of Chihuahua City received by the military here today told of the preliminary skirmishing just before dawn which developed into a general attack at 4:30 o'clock. The machine guns, mounted on elevations protecting the main roads to the city, began firing soon after day-break and the heavy artillery on Santa Rosa hill added its rumblings to the symphony at sunrise. The assault became a general one at 7 o'clock with the bandits attacking from all sides according to the despatches received here. A repulse of Villa was reported soon after 9 o'clock after which nothing of the battle was received until the telegraph line was cut.

Believe Fighting Favors Villa.

El Paso, Texas, Nov. 25.—High army officials tonight declared their belief that indications were that the tide of battle at Chihuahua City was turning in favor of Villa and his forces after he had been defeated and driven off repeatedly during the past two days.

The fact the telegraph line is cut was considered significant by these army officers who are closely watching developments in Mexico. This, they say, indicates Villa's force is north of the capital and far removed from the artillery on Santa Rosa hill and other eminences. The side having the greatest supply of ammunition will win, one officer declared tonight.

PRETTY CHICAGO GIRL LONGS FOR CITY LIFE

Grows Tired of Bargain Made With Wealthy Farmer

Mary Smith, Tried of Farm Life, Declares Money Isn't Everything in This World—She Will Give Up Promise of $10,000 and Return to Big City Tomorrow.

AMBOY, Ill., Nov. 25.—Mary Smith, the pretty Chicago girl who was adopted by James Pankhurst, a wealthy farmer and his wife, August 13th, 1915, with the understanding she was to remain single and act a companion to the aged couple and receive $10,000 upon their death, has grown tired of the bargain and will return to Chicago next Monday.

"Money isn't everything in this world," she said today. "I want the right to live as I please. Somebody else's money and somebody else's rules cannot give me that. I am tired of farm life and want to go back to the city to stay. I made this experiment with all sincerity and simply find that I do not like to live in the country. I consider the experiment worth while."

"When I return to Chicago I am sure I will be able to find work and earn my own living. I am just crazy for a baked sweet potato and some grapefruit. I have not tasted either since I came here. Uncle Jim and Aunt Louise were kind to me but another's home is not your own. I expect to have a home of my own some day."

Mary Smith was selected by Pankhurst and his wife from many applicants who responded to their published appeal for an attractive girl, who would make her home with them in return for a guarantee of $10,000 at their death.

The attempt by the elderly couple to make over a city bred girl into one content to spend her days with them in the country caught the public fancy and thousands watched the experiment with interest.

WITNESSES TESTIFY FOR M'DANIEL DEFENSE

Points of Prosecution's Theory of Crime Are Attacked

Score of Witnesses Testify Home Life of Prosecutor and Wife Was Happy and Congenial—Other Testimony Refutes Evidence as to Screams.

ST. JOSEPH, Mo., Nov. 25.—Three points of the theory upon which the prosecution basis its charge that Oscar D. McDaniel, prosecuting attorney of Buchanan county murdered Mrs. Harriet Moss McDaniel his wife, were attacked in the criminal court here today when the defense began presentation of its evidence.

Four witnesses were examined. The defense considered the main point it made today was the testimony of nearly a score of witnesses that the home life of the prosecutor and his wife was congenial and happy. The defense also called H. H. Powell, an insurance agent and neighbor of the McDaniels who testified that bedding and clothing from the room in which Mrs. McDaniel had been murdered has been burned and the room cleaned by himself and others without McDaniel's knowledge. He also declared he had sanctioned of James A. Clouser, chief of police at the time of clean the room.

The third point made in behalf of McDaniel was the introduction of five witnesses to show that screams in the neighborhood of the prosecutor's home on the night of the murder were made by young women swinging. The defense thru Mr. Powell and his wife who followed on the stand, endeavored to show that cats were fighting on a lawn near the McDaniel home about ten o'clock that night.

The questions asked the character witnesses were practically similar being queries if Mr. and Mrs. McDaniel had exhibited faith and trust in each other and if it had been usually or unusually so. The answer to the first was in all cases "yes" and "unusually so" to the other by most of the witnesses.

With McDaniel today was his ten year old son, Odell McDaniel and his mother, Mrs. D. L. McDaniel, neither of whom have been in court previously.

Judge Ben Lindsay of the Denver juvenile court was one of the candidates in the recent election who was "vindicated." Judge Lindsay, like Thomas Mott Osborne and other reformers, has been subject of continued attack. His re-election by a margin of 10,000 votes is an indication of the place he holds at home, regardless of the political machinations of his enemies.

It's about time to begin talking of public markets to give the down-trodden consumer relief from high prices for necessities. During every period of high prices the talk of public markets and their benefit comes but the markets seldom materialize and still frequently are they of great benefit. It is only in exceptional cases that merchants cannot be found who will sell food products at reasonable prices.

If the proposal of Frederick C. Howe, commissioner of immigration is carried out the European countries will be compelled to pass laws to prevent their citizens from coming to America. Mr. Howe suggests that the United States shall lend money to immigrants and establish them on farms. The idea smacks much of the paternalism in government, which is offensive to many people.

Possibly one cause for the exceptional demand for nearly all commodities just now and the higher prices can be found in the increased population. The census bureau says that we now have three million more people in this country to feed and clothe than we had in 1915. The crop reports at the same time show a significant falling off in the total production of wheat, corn, oats and potatoes, and comparing the lesser supply with the greater number of people it is easy to account for a part of the increase in prices—but not all.

Rippling Rhymes By WALT MASON

The Model Kid

How sweet the child who says, "I will" when weary father cries, "I wish you'd take an ax and kill about a million lies." The child who's active to obey, who heeds with cheerful brow, whatever Pa or Ma may say, is worth more than a cow. I have a pair of young goats, and when I let them work they answer me, "You bet your boots," and never think to shirk. I say to them, "Go rake the leaves from off the lawn today," they get their rakes and neither grieves that he must quit his play. I say to them, "Go paint the pump, and mow the priceless grass," and they go at it on the jump and hand me back no naps. For such a wholesome brace of kids, it is a joy to toll, and buy them underwear and lids, and cake and castor oil. How sharper than a serpent's tooth, how worthless and how bad, is that unseemly, graceless youth, who won't obey his dad! For him the world will hold no prize, the dump will be his home; he'll live unmoved, and when he dies, no soul in town will mourn.

cause for Thanksgiving the people of this community and the country at large can almost without exception express their gratitude. Suffering and want exist in this country now only in remote cases. Those who want work can find it. The man who has produce or livestock or almost any commodity or labor can find a ready market and a high price. Thus there is plenty to eat and to wear and we can count our material blessings with ease.

At some Thanksgiving times it has been necessary to turn the thoughts away from present day causes for rejoicing and to look backward to other years to think of our inheritance of liberty and the various privileges which have come to us as citizens of a great and free republic. This year we can be thankful for the inheritance and also for the present day blessings. But this Thanksgiving time will not hold its greatest meaning if we are content to express gratitude to heaven for these bounties and forget the fact that this country wide prosperity is abnormal and is based in large measure upon the insufferable conditions brought about by the greatest war in history.

Chauncey Depew, who at the age of 82 1-2, knows more about growing old youthfully than most men, says that the psalmist who first promulgated the three-score-and-ten idea was responsible for more deaths than the great war 10 times over. "They think they ought to die and they die," he says. "The point should be added to the new thought folks' collection if they haven't it already."

WHEN YOU DO YOUR CHRISTMAS SHOPPING.

When you do your Christmas shopping. When your hearts are light and gay. When your friends are all remembered. For that "Merry Christmas" day:

When you do your Christmas shopping. See the pretty things you'd buy. But your dollars do not reach them. 'Cause the prices are so high.

When you do your Christmas shopping. Spend your dollars, spend your dimes. For the furbelows and follies. Even tho it be hard times.

When you do your Christmas shopping. You'll remember, I am sure. All the shivering and the hungry. When it's Christmas for the poor.

Building.

(Milwaukee Journal.)
"Build thee more stately mansions, O my soul!
As the swift seasons roll,
Leave thy low vaulted past;
Let each new temple, nobler than the last,
Shut thee from heaven with a dome more vast,
Till thou at length art free,
Leaving thine outgrown shell by life's unresting sea."

Day by day, as we live we are building up the habitation of our souls. How are we building? Without regard to beauty and symmetry? Are we leaving rough places and ugly blots on what should be all lovely? Are we trying from day to day to add loveliness to loveliness? Have we a glorious whole in mind before us as an example for our building? The building goes on as long as there is life. Then we must not forget "The Chambered Nautilus," nor slack in building that will make our habitation glorious.

In Canada to the north of us they are giving their money and their blood to aid in that contest. In Mexico to the south of us starvation and sorrow exist because of the unending conflict there. Look where we may and compare conditions with our own, we find privation and suffering, and the thought should come to us, even in our rejoicing, that our own plenty is the result in part of that poverty and privation.

So with the thankfulness for present day blessings should come the earnest determination to selfishly prepare somewhat for our own future by cutting down prodigality and encouraging thrift. Then the more generous impulse should rule and we should resolve just as firmly to take some portion of our prosperity and give to those who so sorely need. We are forced to remember that the horror and suffering of war do not bear down nearly so heavily upon the actual combatants as upon the women and children who are left at home. The cruelty of the great conflict is thus forced upon our minds even at this glad time, and next Thursday will be indeed a hollow Thanksgiving day if its meaning is merely skin-deep—if we content ourselves with mere praise and gladness just because we find ourselves in peace and plenty.

NO ROOM IN THE INN.

By Bruce Barton, in Every Week.

Did you ever stop to think of the tragedy of the little hotel at Nazareth in Palestine—the "inn"?

The parents of Jesus of Nazareth knocked at its doors and could not come in. It might have sheltered the greatest event in the history of the world—the birth of Jesus; and it lost the chance.

Why? Why was Jesus of Nazareth born in a stable? Because the people at the inn were vicious or hostile? Not at all. But the inn was full—every room was occupied by people who had money to pay and who must be served—it was full of business. There was "no room in the inn."

ness for his wife and boy. As a matter of fact, his business is working him. There is no room in his life for anything else. And his son is a fool.

"You had quite a taste for literature when you left college, didn't you?" we asked another man. "Oh, yes," he answered sadly, "but I had to give all that up. A man can't be in business and find room for anything else."

"I hear Simpson's wife has left him," we heard a third man say, and is spending her evenings alone, probably. You know Simpson always said business comes first."

In a little village churchyard in England there is this inscription: "Here lies Peter Bacon, born a man and died a good man. Take care that it be not written over you, 'Born a man and died a business man.' Make good, but do not sacrifice, in making good, the gifts of life that are best."

OBITUARY SKETCH OF CHARLES HOLLEY

Charles Holley, whose death took place at 1:45 o'clock Saturday morning, Nov. 18, at Livingston, Montana, passed away after a two-week's illness, the last four days of which he was suffering with pneumonia. He was 41 years old and for four months past had been an employee of the Garner cigar factory at Livingston. Mr. Holley had previously resided in California. Tho in Montana but a short time he was very popular among his fellow workmen and his death was deeply deplored.

In a letter received by the family here from Ed. A. Pfinghaupf, president of Cigar Makers' Local Union No. 312, to which the deceased belonged, it is said: "Charles Holley was popular, well liked and respected by all and was always a good and faithful member of the craft and we will deeply mourn his loss as well. We did the very best we could for him during his brief illness."

The body was brought to Jacksonville for burial and funeral services were held Wednesday afternoon at the residence of George Holley, 719 North East street, in charge of the Rev. J. G. Kupfer, pastor of Salem Lutheran church. Burial was made in Jacksonville cemetery.

Surviving were the father, one sister, Mrs. Charles Hughett of LaSalle and four brothers, John Holley and George Holley of Arnold, Henry Holley of San Antonio, Calif., and William Holley at home.

Tho Mr. Holley had not resided in Jacksonville for several years he had here many friends and his untimely death was the signal for genuine sorrow on the part of a large number.

RED CROSS SEAL SALE
TO BEGIN HERE MONDAY

Letters Will Be Mailed Out This Week With Stamps—Local Anti-Tuberculosis Society May Win Pennant.

The Morgan County Anti-Tuberculosis league expects to carry on the campaign for the sale of Red Cross Christmas seals in much the same way as in the two years just past. Letters with stamps will be mailed out this week and the request will be made that those receiving these keep the stamps and mail back the requisite amount. The work is under supervision of Mrs. E. P. Cleary. Morgan County has an enviable record for zeal in the prosecution of the Red Cross seal sale and it is not improbable that the local league will win the county pennant from the national anti-tuberculosis organization.

Illinois is no longer a "black state" on maps prepared by anti-tuberculosis workers. As the result of referendum campaigns conducted in ten counties this fall by the Illinois Tuberculosis Association, eight county tuberculosis sanatoria are to be built as soon as the tax levy voted for that purpose becomes available.

In Kane county, where the hardest fight was made against the establishment of a sanatorium, the largest majority was recorded in favor of the proposition. The list of the counties in which the sanatorium question carried with the majority in such is as follows:

County	Majority
Kane	11,038
LaSalle	8,501
Adams	6,831
Champaign	6,079
Morgan	5,036
Livingston	3,513
McLean	1,947
Ogle	1,773

In Rock Island and Greene counties the sanatorium failed to carry. Officers of the Illinois Tuberculosis Association which engineered the campaigns in the eight counties listed above and worked shoulder to shoulder with local committees, as well as the chairmen and campaign managers in the sanatorium voting counties, are being congratulated by anti-tuberculosis workers throughout the country.

Phillip P. Jacobs, acting secretary of the National Association for the Prevention of Tuberculosis, with offices in New York, in a letter to W. D. Thurber, acting secretary of the Illinois Tuberculosis Association, extends his congratulations and declares that on no other state has ever before carried so many sanatorium referendum campaigns at one election.

Both the state tuberculosis association and the State Board of Health are planning to continue their cooperation with local tuberculosis committees and Boards of Supervisors in the eight counties with the view of helping to bring about the building of hospitals that will be taken as a model in other states.

LARGE QUARTERS

WERE NEEDED. Mention was made yesterday of the change of the meeting place of the First Church of Christ Scientist. The last service in the present quarters in the Hutton building will be next Thursday and the first service in the new quarters in the Odd Fellows temple on East State street will be Sunday, December 3. The reason for the change is found in the increased membership and the need for larger quarters. The reading room will be maintained at 507 Ayers bank building.

RECOVERING FROM SPRAIN.

Thomas Brown of Sinclair, who had the misfortune to fall and sprain an ankle several weeks ago and was able to be in Jacksonville yesterday. He is still compelled to use crutches, however, and cannot bear any weight on the foot.

When Naming a Trustee
In Your Will Secure Financial Experience

YOU may find it in an individual, but seldom in the degree possessed by a well equipped trust company. Managing property and handling estates is a business in itself, requiring as much specialized ability as law or engineering. You would not think of hiring a layman to conduct a lawsuit or to build a steel bridge. Then why name a friend or a relative without suitable financial experience to be the executor of your will and trustee of your estate? This company has developed facilities for handling estates second to none in this community, and its fees, by legal provision, can be no higher than would be due an individual executor or trustee. They frequently are less.

FINE CHANCE TO SAVE IS OFFERED

Christmas Banking Club Launched By F. G. Farrell & Co.—Will Encourage Thrift.

"Join our Christmas banking club" is now the slogan at the F. G. Farrell & Co. bank. The plan, which was announced Saturday by the bank, is already in operation and men, women and children, no matter what the age, are all invited to join. Deposits will be received from 1c up, the plan being simply to provide for weekly savings of some stipulated amount on which the bank will pay interest at the rate of 3 per cent. Of course this money with the interest can all be paid back to the depositors if desired at Christmas time and used to defray the holiday expenses. It is the hope of the bankers, however, to encourage such thrift among the members of the club that all the deposits will not be spent as soon as drawn but that the larger portion will be deposited in savings or general accounts.

It has been proven conclusively that saving is largely a matter of habit and that the earlier it is begun the better off the person. Members of the Farrell & Co. Christmas banking club will each have a pass book just like all other bank customers and when they bring in their deposits, no matter how small, they will be credited in the regular way. It is the expectation of the bank that parents and children from the same households will show their interest in this organized effort to save and establish habits of thrift which will be mutually helpful.

Some special advertisements will appear from day to day calling the attention of the public to this banking club plan, but the earlier you make a start, just that much sooner will your total begin to grow. The Farrell & Co. bank has been in existence more than half a century and enjoys the well earned reputation first of absolute stability, and secondly of uniform courtesy to its customers who are accorded every possible advantage consistent with sound banking. If you do not understand all about the banking club just stop in at the Farrell & Co. bank and the full details will be given you.

I. C. MEN IN GOOD
FORM AT CARTHAGEVictory Came Easily After First
Skirmishes—Score 42 to 0.

(By Fred Blum)

True to her old time form Illinois journeyed to Carthage Saturday and defeated the Carthage College team of that place by the score of 42 to 0. The weather was just crisp enough to make the plays snappy and give lots of "pop" to the contestants but the field was damp and very slippery and handicapped those running with the ball. A large crowd of an even hundred spectators witnessed the contest.

Carthage started the game full of ginger and with plenty of fight and tried to sweep the Illinois machine off of its feet. It took the Illinois boys just about eight minutes to get started and after that the result of the contest was never in doubt.

Riefler, who replaced Rendleman at end, played a great game, proving exceptionally strong on defensive work. Mitchell, the old reliable, showed his true colors by carrying the ball across for three touchdowns and pushing one of the Carthage players over the line for a safety. Conklin made his first touchdown of the season in the fourth quarter. All the rest of the Illinois boys performed according to their usual standard.

First Quarter

Carthage received but failed to gain and punted. Illinois was forced to punt. Grauf made eight yards thru the line. Carthage penalized five yards for off side. Forward pass failed and then they punted. Pierce, Spink and Barnes carried the ball about twenty yards when Carthage held for downs. Carthage fumbled and Frisbie recovered. Pierce gained three yards and Spink went across on two line plays. Frisbie kicked goal. Score, Illinois, 7, Carthage 0.

Second Quarter

Carthage received. Spink intercepted their third attempt to forward pass. Frisbie caught a forward pass that netted about ten yards. Illinois penalized five yards for off side. Pierce gained four yards and Mitchell went around for a touchdown. Frisbie kicked goal. Score, Illinois 14, Carthage 0.

Carthage again chose to receive. Failed at an attempt to forward pass and punted. Punt recovered by Carthage. Grauf went then for eleven yards. Jones in place of Spink. Thiebaud threw Runyon for a six yard loss. Carthage off side. Carthage punted to twenty yard line. Illinois failed to gain and punted. The half ended with Carthage carrying the ball in the middle of the field. Score, Illinois 14, Carthage 0.

Third Quarter

Carthage kicked to Illinois. and recovered. Several punts exchanged. Whisler intercepted a pass. Carthage held for downs. Thiebaud throw Jenkins for a fifteen yard loss and on the next play Mitchell pushed Runyon across the goal line for a safety. Score Illinois 16, Carthage 0.

Carthage ball on the twenty yard line. Carthage punted. Illinois ball on thirty yard line. Pierce, Spink and Conklin carried the ball to the five yard line. Mitchell went across for a touchdown. Frisbie kicked goal. Score Illinois 23, Carthage 0.

Fourth Quarter

Fanning in place of Riefler. Strickler in place of Zink, who was taken from the game on account of injuries. Carthage punted. Two downs failed to net any gain. Frisbie circled the end for nine yards. Wilson in place of Barnes. Conklin caught a forward pass and carried to the three yard line. Mitchell carried it across. Frisbie failed to kick goal. Score Illinois 29, Carthage 0.

Russel in place of Valentine. Carthage received. Spink intercepted a forward pass and carried to the seven yard line. Frisbie punting and Wilson carried the ball to the seven yard line. Wilson went over for a touchdown. Score Illinois 36, Carthage 0.

Carthage again chose to receive. Spink intercepted a forward pass and carried to the ten yard line. Fanning and Wilson gained four yards. On the fourth down Conklin carried the ball across. Frisbie missed goal. Score, Illinois 42, Carthage 2.

Illinois received. Pierce and Wilson went thru for sixteen yards. Several forward passes failed. Pierce went thru for eight yards more. GREAT PAVLOVA
COMING THURSDAYFamous Russian Dancer Will Be Seen at Majestic Thanksgiving Day.

As a special Thanksgiving attraction Manager Luttrell has been fortunate in securing the incomparable Pavlova in "The Dumb Girl of Portici." Early in the spring of 1916 this Russian dancer made her debut on the stage of the Metropolitan Opera House in New York City. Her coming had been very quiet, almost unheralded and practically unannounced, but within twenty-four hours the masses were aflame with enthusiasm. Her art was superb; her dancing divine. Without question she was the greatest dancer that had ever appealed to us for recognition, and the American people, who are ever alert for the exceptional and the best in art, paid the wonderful woman the tribute she justly deserved.

Her leave of absence granted by the Imperial Russian government expired on April 1, and like souls under military discipline, the dancer put the broad Atlantic between her and all those she had inspired with a new diversion. Her going was almost as mysterious as had been her arrival and we were left to live in hope that some day she would return again.

Later she came back to us, and the announcement of her coming fired in the public breast the embers which had been smoldering during her absence.

Ever since the moving picture industry began to strengthen its grip on the American people big organizations have been seeking to film great stars in their greatest successes. Anna Pavlova was no exception, and she was approached time after time with most flattering offers, in an effort to make a film production of her in several of her great ballets and divertissements.

But she refused to entertain any and all offers principally because she was so busy filling her regular engagements that she had not the time to devote to being filmed.

However, during a recent visit to Universal City, she became so impressed with the possibilities offered for a novelty in art—something absolutely new—that she consented to make her screen debut under the auspices of the Universal Film Manufacturing Company.

The president of the company said recently: "Pavlova's advent into moving pictures will raise the standard of an art, which, tho still in its infancy, is here to stay. Her going to the screen is the greatest step toward the permanent establishment of this particular art. I think that she has given to the screen a dignity which has long been anticipated, and her work will result in gaining for moving pictures more admirers. I consider her appearance in this great production one of the most progressive and effective steps that has been made since the moving picture was first created."

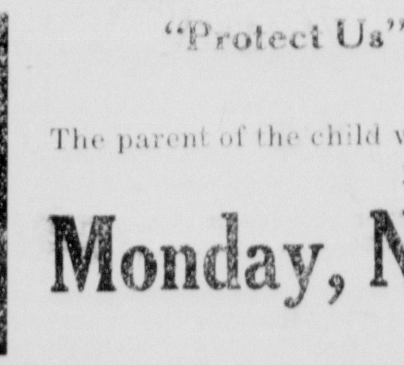

Taking into consideration the difficulties similar concerns encountered in their efforts to secure her services for the screen, I esteem it a privilege, almost inexpressible, and one of the biggest moments in my career to have been permitted to introduce Anna Pavlova, the most perfect portrayer of her particular art, in a screen version of "The Dumb Girl of Portici." This opera has another name which has grown in the hearts of the public, and under which name it has been pictured, "The Dumb Girl of Portici."

THE PLAINT OF THE FALLEN

Yes, once I was as pure as the driven snow;
A too innocent girl, not allowed to know.
A different harvest might have been reaped
If someone had warned me before I leaped
If the seed of ignorance hadn't been sown.

And I'd only known, I'd only known.
No, I wasn't wicked, I wasn't bad;
I was only innocent, and only sad,
I wanted freedom; to me denied,
I wanted counsel, the truth beside,
A different harvest might have been grown.
Had I only known, had I only known.

CHARITY WORKERS TO HAVE CONFERENCE

Will Prepare Plans to be Submitted
Is Hope of Unifying Local Work.

At a recent conference of those especially interested in the effort to unify the charity organizations of Jacksonville a committee was appointed to draw up a plan or report to be presented to the public at a meeting which will be held at an early date in the court house. This committee has been constituted as follows: Dr. F. S. Hayden, chairman; Mrs. Thomas Worthington, Mrs. David Reid, Supt. H. A. Perina, Mrs. George T. Douglas, Rev. W. E. Spoons and Mrs. E. P. Cleary.

The committee is to have an early conference at which time it is hoped that a plan for organization and unification can be worked out which will be satisfactory to all individuals and organizations interested in the charity and benefit work. The experience of many other cities goes to show that where there is united effort and interest that the work can be carried on not only much more economically but also more effectively. The experience of other cities shows, too, that where there is organized effort more work has been done in getting at the cause of poverty and to finding the remedy.

ILLINOIS BUTTER MAKERS CLOSE 6TH CONVENTION

Officers Elected and Dinner Chosen as Next Meeting Place—Boxes
Urged for Butter Packing.

The superiority of the rectangular box over the tub as a vehicle for the shipment of butter was urged by Prof. G. L. McKay, a national authority on dairy matters, at the sixth annual meeting of the Illinois Butter Manufacturers' Improvement Association, in session last week at the Hotel Sherman at Chicago. W. W. Marple of Chicago was elected president. N. J. Nelson of Peoria, known to local business men, was re-elected director. L. T. Potter, manager of the Jacksonville Creamery Co., was present from this city to attend the meeting.

A recent inauguration of a laboratory for butter making in Chicago was announced and the creamery here was enrolled as a member. Prof. McKay in his address on the shipment of butter, said that round packages were a waste in more ways than one. They are more expensive to ship and store. The fact that most of the butter is later put into square boxes for retailing is also a factor of waste.

LAMB FRICASSEE
Three pounds of lamb from the fore-quarter cut by the butcher in pieces for serving.

Wipe meat, put in kettle, cover with boiling water, and cook slowly until tender. Remove from water, cool, sprinkle with salt and pepper, dredge with flour, and saute in butter or mutton fat. Arrange on platter and pour around it one and one-half cups of brown sauce made from liquor in which meat was cooked, after removing all fat. It is better to cook the meat the day before serving as fat may then be easily removed.

THE BROWN SAUCE
3 tablespoons fat
2 slices onion
4 tablespoons flour
1 1/2 cups brown stock
3/4 teaspoon salt
1/4 teaspoon pepper
Cook onion in fat until slightly browned, remove onion and stir, adding flour and add warm stock gradually.

DUMPLINGS
2 cups flour
4 teaspoons baking powder
1/4 cup milk
1/2 teaspoon salt
2 teaspoons butter
Mix and sift dry ingredients, work in butter with tips of fingers. Add milk gradually using a knife for mixing. Toss on a floured board, pat, and roll out to one-half inch in thickness. Shape with biscuit cutter, first dipped in flour. Place closely together in a buttered steamer, put over kettle of boiling water, cover closely, and steam twelve minutes. A perforated tin pie plate may be used in place of the steamer. A little more milk may be used in the mixture, when it may be taken by spoonful, dropped and cooked on top of the stew. In this case some of the liquid must be removed so that the dumplings may rest on meat and potatoes and not settle into the liquid.

SPLIT TEA SOUP
1 cup dried split peas
2 1/2 quarts cold water
1 pint milk
1/2 onion
2 inch cube fat salt pork
2 tablespoons fat
2 tablespoons flour
1 1/2 teaspoons salt

VETERAN DIES
Two years ago Rev. F. M. Crabtree of White Hall was conducting a revival service in Patterson. As a result of that meeting Peter Johnson, a man ninety-one years old and one of the California "49ers," entered into the church relationship. Mr. Johnson died recently and the young minister who was instrumental in interesting him in religious affairs was sent for to conduct the funeral.

ROUND TABLE HEARS OF ORIENTAL RUGS.

The Rev. J. F. Langton Speaks in Highly Interesting Way at November Meeting Saturday Afternoon, Showing Valued Rugs From His Own Collection.

The Rev. J. F. Langton, rector of Trinity Episcopal church, gave a highly interesting talk on "Oriental Rugs" Saturday afternoon at the November meeting of the Domestic Science Round Table of the Jacksonville Woman's club, entertained by Mrs. A. Wehl, 127 Webster avenue. Mr. Langton was long engaged as a rug buyer and has spent fifteen years in the orient. Mrs. Langton has written an authoritative book on oriental rugs and from this the speaker often quoted. Mr. Langton illustrated his talk by reference to specimens from his own collection, some of them hundreds of years old. The talk was replete with facts of living interest and each member of the Round Table was emphatically earnest in her words of appreciation and praise.

Excellent refreshments were served at the close of the program and there prevailed a social hour of especial pleasure. At the business session it was announced that the next meeting would take the nature of a "buddy social" and that the proceeds would be given to the free kindergarten.

The hostesses assisting Mrs. Wehl were Mrs. C. L. Mathis, Miss Clara Ranson, Mrs. J. N. Conover, Mrs. Herbert Capps, Mrs. Thomas Harber, Mrs. M. C. Hook, Mrs. W. D. Roberts, Mrs. Frank Vickery, Mrs. J. A. Vickery, Miss Leila Berryman, Miss Ruth Kingsley, Miss Clara C. Cobb, Miss Courtney Crouch, Mrs. A. C. Kingsley, Mrs. H. C. Gay, Mrs. M. E. RAILROAD DAMAGE CASES TO FEDERAL COURT

Attorneys for Wabash Filed Petition
Which Judge Creighton Allowed—
Divorces are Granted.

Saturday is not always a busy day in the circuit court but yesterday Judge Creighton heard a number of cases and entered the necessary orders. In the case of Iver Mueller, by next friend, against the Wabash railway a motion was made by Paul Samuel, attorney for the complainant, to dismiss the cause without prejudice. This motion was denied and the court granted the petition of the defendant railway company for removal of the cause to the federal court. This motion had been filed by Bellatti, Bellatti & Moriarty as attorneys for the railroad. Judge Creighton held that since the motion for removing to the federal court and a bond for the necessary costs had been filed by the defendant that under the law the case was automatically transferred to the federal court and that he could not, therefore, grant the motion made by complainant for dismissal.

It seems that the law provides that where damages in excess of $3,000 are asked and the requirements already mentioned are met, that the case goes to the federal court.

In the suit of W. B. Groves against the Wabash railroad and his suit as administrator of the estate of Mary Ellen Groves against the Wabash railroad, W. N. Halgrove and John M. Butler entered a motion for dismissal. The attorneys for the road had filed their petition and bond in these cases just as in the Mueller case and the court ruling was the same. All three of these cases will therefore now go to the federal court.

Chancery Orders.

The following entries were made on the chancery docket.

Mary Elizabeth Lazenby et al. vs. Ida May Lazenby et al. Partition. Motion by complainant to assess and tax a solicitors' fee, argued and taken under advisement by the court.

Neil S. Duckels et al. vs. George Ball, Hill. Suit dismissed by complainant.

Dickson vs. Minnie Mills, alias Minnie May Dickson. Bill Decree for annulment of marriage granted and decree approved.

Mary F. Wald vs. John H. Wald. Divorce. Decree of divorce on the ground of desertion, the complainant being given the custody of the minor children.

Stella Horl vs. John Horl. Divorce. Decree granted the complainant on a statutory charge.

Etta M. Durand vs. W. H. Durand. Divorce. Decree of divorce granted complainant on ground of desertion.

Clara H. Smith vs. Luther E. Smith. Divorce. Decree of divorce was granted for desertion and Mrs. Smith was given the custody of the children.

A divorce was granted Mrs. Lavina Rapsilber from Albert T. Rapsilber on statutory grounds.

Mrs. Amanda E. Timothee has secured a divorce from her husband, W. H. Timothy, the charge of desertion having been sustained.

M. J. GALHULY VERY ILL AT WHITE HALL

Well Known Citizen There Suffers
Stroke of Paralysis—City's Pumping Pail is too Costly—Gasoline Used.

White Hall, Nov. 25.—M. J. Galhuly, who suffered a stroke of paralysis at Morrison, Mo., on Thursday morning of this week and rushed to his home here, is still in a critical condition. He has been unconscious since the attack and is still in that condition. Mr. Galhuly is a well known stoneware salesman, his latest connection being with A. D. Buskell & Son of this city. He stands high in this community, and grave concern is felt as to the outcome of his case. He is under the care of Dr. H. C. Campbell and a trained nurse.

Announcements have been received in this city of the marriage of Harry Wales North and Miss Jesse Catherine Viehe, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Viehe of Memphis, Tennessee, which took place at Memphis on November 23rd. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward North of Houston, Texas, formerly of White Hall, and is engaged at present in the wholesale business at Memphis. Up to recently he was engaged in the banking business at Evansville, Indiana, and it is within the range of possibility that he will return to the Evansville banking concern with a larger interest than he held in the past.

The Mock Chautauqua

White Hall manifested a lingering interest in chautauqua affairs by the interest taken in the mock chautauqua pulled off in the Princess theatre Friday night under the auspices of Adams Rebekah Lodge, I. O. O. F. Mrs. Minnie Ludwig, noble grand of the lodge, originated the idea, and by enlisting the aid of Mrs. J. C. Spencer during the summer the possibility of success at once brightened. The whole proceedings were carried out as a mock reproduction of the program of the White Hall chautauqua last season, and the parts were so effectively rendered as to arouse many to remark that the mock chautauqua was even more enjoyable than the real thing. Robert G. Smith served as stage manager in such a manner that he is now sure of being chosen platform manager of the White Hall chautauqua next year. The program lasted three and a half hours, and the jubilee singers at the close of the performance made such a hit that notwithstanding the lateness of the hour, they were repeatedly encouraged. The participants will be banqueted at a convenient date in the near future in the I. O. O. F. hall. The receipts were about $140.00, and about eighty dollars will be cleared. There were people present from Carrollton, Roodhouse, Greenfield, Wrights, Patterson, and possibly other nearby places.

The Pumping Proposition

White Hall is wrestling with the city pumping proposition in an effort to secure relief from the present exhorbitant gasoline bills occasioned by the gasoline engines that have been in use for the past eight years. Coal oil and electricity are the methods now being considered, and Alderman T. J. Grant, chairman of the water committee, is giving the public all the information available on the subject in order that the citizens may gain an intelligent understanding of what is the best process for replacing gasoline power. So far figures submitted by the city consulting engineer are decidedly in favor of coal oil.

EFFICIENCY TEST

FOR PATROLMEN
Efficiency is the much overworked word we are now applying to all lines of business and endeavor. In Chicago the merit board is applying the efficiency test to patrolmen seeking promotion in a more practical way than heretofore. Since the patrolmen are asking now for preferment the board members wish them to show cause and here are some of the questions the aspirants for honors must answer:

How many times have you been reprimanded by your superior officers?

Have you ever made any arrests, and, if so, how many?

Have you ever prevented any crimes?

Have you ever saved any lives or prevented any injuries?

Have you ever performed any police service when "off duty"?

Have you ever been awarded a medal?

Do you drink liquor of any kind?

If so, to what extent?

MRS. CARRIE ORTON DIES

AT CHICAGO HOSPITAL.

A telegram received yesterday by Mrs. R. A. Gates announced the death of Mrs. Caroline Rutledge Orton of Lincoln. The death occurred at the Presbyterian hospital in Chicago. Mrs. Orton, who is well known in Jacksonville, was the mother of Mrs. Marshall Gates, and a cousin of Mrs. Thomas Rapp and Mrs. Robert Palmer of this city. Mrs. Orton was for a number of years a resident of Jacksonville, as she was the daughter of Rev. and Mrs. William J. Rutledge, the family home being on South Main street. Rev. Mr. Rutledge was for years one of the most prominent ministers of the Methodist church in this conference.

THOUSANDS SEE ELI ELEVEN WIN

TRIUMPH OVER HARVARD FOR FIRST TIME SINCE 1909

Yale Forces Boughton Machine Back Across Goal Line for a Touchdown. After Crimson Had Gone Into Lead in Opening Period With a Field Goal—80,000 Witness Game—Harvard Man's 71 Yard Run for Touchdown Not Allowed

New Haven, Conn., Nov. 25.—Yale triumphed over Harvard here this afternoon by a score of 6 to 2. Tonight the entire town is celebrating the first football victory over the Crimson since 1909, and the first touchdown since 1907.

Possessed of a stronger line and a backfield the equal of Harvard's, the Eli eleven took up the battle after the Crimson had gone into the lead with a field goal in the opening period. With a steady attack aided by the break of a recovered fumble, Yale forced the Houghton coached machine back across its goal line for a touchdown that proved to be the winning score. Close to 80,000 spectators massed within the Yale bowl, filling every available foot of space. When the time keeper's whistle announced the completion of play and of Yale's victory thousands of cheering and yelling Yale alumni and students rushed

HOW TO GAIN FLESH

Remarkable Statement of a Woman Who Was Nothing But Skin and Bones.

Laugh and grow fat is a homely saying, but Mrs. Elizabeth L. Morris of Hammond, La., tells of a more reliable method. She says:

"I cannot say enough in praise of Vinol, for it saved my life. I was weak, nervous, run-down, could not sleep, was unfit for work and was nothing but skin and bones. Three doctors had all failed to help me. One day I saw Vinol advertised, took courage and bought a bottle, and it soon made me feel better. I continued its use and such a change! I have regained my strength, flesh and health, am perfectly well, and the doctor was surprised to see such a change in me in such a short time." Elizabeth Morris, Hammond, La.

The reason Vinol proved such a wonderful strength creator in Mrs. Morris' case was because of the beef and cod liver peptones, iron and manganese peptones, and glycerophosphates, combined in a pure native tonic wine, which makes Vinol a most wonderful tonic.

If your little one's tongue is coated it is a sure sign the stomach, liver and bowels need a gentle, thorough cleansing at once. down the steep tiers of the bowl and out upon the field, engaging the fatigued blue heroes as they sprinted for the side lines. For a moment there was a seething mass of young and old, men and women, that hid the players. Then out of the maelstrom emerged the members of the winning team borne upon the shoulders of their class mates and led by the university band and the captains of the crew, track and baseball teams the tide of joyous Yale adherents swept up and down the gridiron in the snake dance that has become a part of such celebrations.

Huge balls of blue fire immediately after the game was over were attached to the two bars at the extreme ends of the field while squads of undergraduates fired volleys of roman candle balls across the bars as the band played and the blue sections of the stands sang and cheered in unison. Across the bowl, the Harvard body stood in silence after the Crimson team had left the field until the parade reached their position. Then the cheer leaders called for a long yell for Yale that evoked an equally hearty response from Yale as well as round after round of applause from the searful spectators.

The game was played under trying conditions for both contestants and spectators. The weather man turned loose a winter day with leaden gray clouds scurrying across a sun that was without warmth and a gale that reached a velocity of 40 miles an hour and carried the kicked ball in swirling and erratic circle. Sweeping north, the gale blew the length of the gridiron giving the team with the wind at its back a decided advantage and one that the quarterbacks were quick to improve. Both the Harvard and Yale scores were made when the respective eleven occupied this point of vantage.

Harvard won the toss and Captain Dabnum elected to defend the north goal with the gale at his back. After an exchange of kicks and some mid-field scrumming, Harvard punted to Laroche who fumbled on Yale's 26 yard line whereupon Thatcher pounced upon the ball. The Blue yielded so little ground that Robinson was forced to try a field goal from the Eli's 28-yard line. The ball carried between the posts and Harvard's only points of the contest were registered.

Yale's chance came in the second period when after the teams had changed goals Horwin's best kicking effort against the wind was to drive to midfield where the blue began the charge that was to give them victory. Neville and LeGore battered their way thru the Crimson forwards for ten yards. On the next rush LeGore fumbled the ball as he was tackled, the pigskin rolling and bounding toward the Crimson goal, until Gates caught it up. He ran to the 12-yard mark before he was finally hauled down.

Foot by foot Harvard was forced back, four downs barely gaining the necessary ten yards. With two more yards needed to make the touchdown Yale crashed three times into the Harvard defense for only slight gains but on the fourth and final try, Neville slid over the backs of the low playing Crimson scrummers for the touchdown that won the game the first made by the Blue against Harvard since Ted Cox crossed the Crimson line at Cambridge in the game of 1907.

Harvard men lost heavily in the wagering which had made the Crimson a ten to seven favorite just before the eleven lined up. They took occasion tonight however to point out that had Case's 71-yard run for a touchdown in the second period been allowed the team would have returned home a winner. This was the most spectacular feature of the game.

Taking the ball after a punt on its own 29-yard line Harvard lined up and on the first play Casey slipped thru the left side of the Yale line, dodged past the secondary defense and sprinted down the field and across the goal line for what appeared to be a touchdown. The officials, however, had detected holding by the Harvard forwards and the ball was brought back and the chance lost.

OHIO STATE UNIVERSITY CONFERENCE CHAMPIONS

DEFEATS NORTHWESTERN IN DECISIVE MANNER AT COLUMBUS.

Baby Member of Western Conference Has Won Every Game Played This Season—Harley Is Hero of Game—Scores All but Seven of Ohio's Points.

Columbus, O., Nov. 25.—Ohio State University, the baby member of the Western conference tonight holds the undisputed football championship of the big nine as a result of its 23 to 3 victory over Northwestern here today.

The scarlet and gray gridiron warriors have won every game they have played this season. Today's defeat was the first suffered this year by Northwestern.

"Chic" Harley was the hero of the game. He broke thru Northwestern's team for a run of 63 yards and a touchdown, and succeeded in scoring all but seven of Ohio State's points. Harley is 19 years old.

"Paddy" Driscoll, on which Northwestern pinned her hopes for victory also played a wonderful game making his team's only score.

Ohio State did the first scoring the first period, when Harley kicked a field goal from the 35 yard line. In the fourth period Driscoll of Northwestern tied the score with a field goal from the 28 yard line.

Ohio State immediately tightened up and before the end of the game had scored three touchdowns in rapid succession.

This is the first time since Ohio State joined the Western conference a little more than three years ago that her football team has been a contender for the championship.

Mrs. John Boddy and daughters of the vicinity of Markham, were added to the list of city callers yesterday.

ARMY GRIDIRON WARRIORS TRIUMPH

DEFEAT PLUCKY NAVY ELEVEN BY SCORE OF 15 TO 7

Oliphant, Former Purdue Star, Is Hero of Cadet Line-up, While Goodstein, Young Navy Captain, Plays Great Game for the Middies—Over 50,000 People See Contest

New York, Nov. 25.—Army skill triumphed over Navy pluck when the football teams from West Point and Annapolis clashed in their annual battle at the Polo grounds today. The cadet's victorious score was 15 to 7.

Some 50,000 persons including the governor of New York, cabinet officers, generals, admirals and an array of lesser lights in both branches of the government service saw the combat. Seas of chrysanthemums swayed as their wearers cheered and shouted and the pennants of both schools were waved proudly.

When the cadets trooped out of the stands at the end of the game and "rushed" the colors, they had eleven victories to their credit to the navy's nine and they celebrated this achievement in time-honored fashion. Seven hundred and sixty strong they massed in front of their beaten rivals, did a serpentine dance about the field before forming a great oval and then at a given signal rushed pell-mell about their colors held aloft by three of their number.

On the kickoff Oliphant caught the ball on his own five yard line and carried it back thru a broken field past eleven plunging middies to within five yards of the navy's goal. From that point it was pushed over for a touchdown. It was Oliphant who later kicked a field goal for the Army.

Goodstein, the young center for the navy was the hero of Annapolis tonight. He broke thru the Army line in the third period blocked one of Vidal's punts and raced fifteen yards for a touchdown.

Governor Whitman, Mayor Mitchell, Secretary of the Navy Daniels and Secretary of War Baker were among the official dignitaries who occupied boxes when the battalion of cadets marched on to the field. In light blue uniforms with long overcoats and carrying yellow pennants, with a band at their head, the soldiers paraded in company front dragging a mountain gun as a mascot.

They started a storm of applause that was renewed several times as they gave a display of the machine-like marching for which they are famous. Then their band played them up into their bleachers at double time.

A few moments after the cadets had cleared the field, the middies, about 1,200 strong, marched in with their blue and crimson uniformed bandmen. In the long navy blue coats of their service they were in deep contrast to the army. Their perfect marching, first in columns of fours, then swinging into a front that extended the length of the field produced another burst of applause from the spectators which continued until the sailors reached their seats. They brought a goat as their mascot.

Just before the army team appeared upon the field the cadets standing with heads uncovered gave the West Point cheer at the end of which their two inch cannon roared a salute to the soldier players.

Between the second and third periods Secretary Daniels and Secretary Baker surrounded by officers high in their respective services walked to the center of the field and greeted each other.

In the Hudson river a fleet of sixteen battleships and lesser fighting craft had dropped anchor to give their man and officers a chance to see the game, and it was said about 10,000 were granted shore leave for this purpose.

Oliphant and Vidal, were the Army stars, keeping the ball in their opponents' territory all thru the first two periods. A well executed forward pass Gerhardt to Vicar, brought the second Army touchdown early in the second period.

Oliphant failed to kick a goal for either touchdown.

With the score 15 to 0 against them the middies returned to their field after the intermission between the halves to make a desperate effort to win. Roberts who caught the kickoff on his own twenty-five yard line ran back 25 yards before he was tackled.

Plays off-tackle and well executed forward passes brought the ball to the army's 25-yard line on an exchange of punts. Goodstein then broke thru, blocked a kick and made a touchdown. Reifel kicking the goal.

The army's goal line was again impeded only to be saved by a forty yard run by Oliphant. Von Heinburg, who substituted for Fisher in the final period did the punting for the navy while he was in the game and outdistanced his army rivals.

MUDDY FIELD PRODUCES SLOW GAME AT MADISON.

Kreuz' Fumble in First of Final Quarter Robs Wisconsin of Chance to Score—Macomber Fails Three Times to Get Field Goal.

Madison, Wis., Nov. 25.—In a field of mud, the University of Wisconsin's football team was enabled today to hold the University of Illinois team to nothing in the first of the last period but Kreuz fumbled and gave Macomber an opportunity to punt out of danger. Hampered by mud Macomber, who ended his football career with this game, failed three times to get a field goal. Twice he tried place kicks and once a drop but without success. One other time the Wisconsin goal was in danger but the line held and Macomber lost the ball when he tried an end run on the fourth down.

The powerful Minnesota eleven ripped up Chicago's line for successive five and ten yard gains and varied its attack by tossing forward passes for thirty and forty yard advances.

Chicago made its downs but twice during the entire game, once on an end run by Agar and again on a forward pass in the fourth period.

Get Away This Winter

Pack your grip, tell the folks goodbye, go down to the depot, buy a ticket to California—that great Out-o'-doors land, which rests the weary and refreshes the weak—via the Burlington Route (the moving picture way through scenic Colorado and Salt Lake in daylight). Climb aboard, lean back, relax and watch America roll past your window. Getting away from the cold, bad weather, business responsibilities, care and worry, and out into the glorious sunshine and semitropical atmosphere of California where you can rest, change and rejuvenate, will do you a world of good. You'll be surprised when you compare the cost with the cost of remaining at home. Think what this will mean to you, when you remember that a life which isn't pleasantly spent isn't well spent. Before completing your plans let me explain how you may join a Burlington Personally Conducted Excursion (costs no more—just a part of Burlington Service) and send you a folder telling all about the trip—worth reading even if you don't go.

STRONG MEN IN JAPANESE CABINET

Indications Point to Most Friendly Relations With the United States—Montono an Accomplished Diplomat.

Tokio, Oct. (Correspondence of The Associated Press.)—Field Marshal Teruchi's most persistent political enemies admit that he has built up a cabinet which contains at least two of the "strong" men of the empire. They are Viscount Ichiro Motono, the new minister of foreign affairs and Baron Shimppei Goto, Japan's great medico-statesman, who has been designated minister of the interior.

Of the remaining members of the cabinet several are very well known to the Japanese though less prominent abroad. Three of them are members of the House of Peers from which body Premier Teruchi expects to find substantial support in carrying out his program which he has announced as being a strengthening of the nation's resources and united and serious exertions on the part of all the people for the effecting of reforms in all departments of national life. The members from the House of Peers are Baron Kenjiro Doi, the new minister of education; Kiyoshi Nakashoji, the minister of commerce and agriculture, and Ryohel Okada who holds the portfolio of education. General Kenichi Oshimo and Admiral Tomosaburo Kato, the ministers of army and navy respectively have been brought over from the outgoing Okuma ministry.

The keenest interest exists throughout Japan as to whether the ministry will be able successfully to weather the coming session of the Diet on account of the apparent total lack of support in the House of Representatives. The attitude of the newly organized majority or constitutional party under Viscount Taknai Kato is understood to be hostile. K. Hara, the head of the Seiyukai or minority party has announced his position as a sort of benevolent neutrality. He said: "Our party will hold an absolutely neutral position but it will give its support to anything that is in the interests of the public and agrees with the principle of our party." He went on: "We must all work for the expansion of our national influence and for the perfection of a true constitutional government. As for the new cabinet we must observe its policy, admiring what is to be admired and attacking when an attack is deserved. The most important thing is to foster patriotic nationalism for the sake of the nation and the people."

May Form Russian Alliance

The fact that Viscount Montono was one of the framers of the Russo-Japanese alliance while ambassador to Petrograd and the belief that Count Teruchi himself has strong Russian sympathies has led many friends of the Anglo-Japanese alliance to fear that the support of the new ministry will be thrown primarily in putting into effect the Russian alliance as against the British. It is remarked that Count Teruchi is the president of the Russo-Japanese society and that Baron Goto, the new minister of the interior, is vice president.

As to the policy of the new cabinet towards the United States great satisfaction is expressed by representative Japanese that Premier Teruchi's recent declarations to The Associated Press should have received such a cordial welcome in the United States. The new cabinet has as yet made no formal declaration of its principles and Count Teruchi's interview has given the only indication thus far of the cabinet's attitude on foreign questions, making matters worse confused.

U. S. Relations

"Besides the land and immigration questions, which are pending between Japan and America, it will be necessary for Japan to know definitely America's attitude toward China. Japan's position vis-a-vis China is somewhat of a peculiar character, but as long as the economic activities of foreign countries in China do not exert any political pressure on Japan she will not only not obstruct their enterprises in China but will welcome them, as they will materially contribute towards the opening up of the resources of the country. For this reason it is necessary that Americans should be convinced of the real intentions of Japan and of the advantage of working jointly with the Japanese in China."

"If Count Teruchi is really anxious for friendly relations between Japan and America he should have dispensed with formal polite phrases and frankly stated what he requires of the United States. Honesty after all is the best policy in diplomacy as in business. Leaving China in her present condition is distinctly inimical to the interests of China herself as well as those of Japan, and herein lies the necessity for Japan to render assistance to China and to direct her along the path of civilization."

In connection with the so-called American problems it is to be noted that several writers, including Professor Shigeo Suhehiro of the Imperial University have recently advocated the settlement of the immigration and land questions, holding the "gentlemen's agreement" as discriminating and unsatisfactory to the dignity of the Japanese people.

The New Foreign Minister

Viscount Montono, the new foreign minister, like Marquis Okuma, is a native of Saga prefecture and is the son of a samurai of the Saga clan. Born in 1862 he went to France at an early age, and studied international law at the University of Lyons. Graduating with the degree of "docteur en droit" he returned to Japan to enter the foreign office. Later he was secretary of the embassy at Petrograd and then minister to Brussels. For five years he was minister at Paris. He was appointed ambassador to Russia in 1906. While sojourning at Tokio he lectured constantly on international law.

In 1907 he was created Baron in recognition of his services in concluding the Russo-Japanese railway convention and was promoted to Viscount last summer for his distinguished service to the state in concluding the alliance between Japan and Russia.

Viscount Motono is regarded as Japan's most accomplished diplomat. Having spent about half his life in Europe either in study or in official service and being regarded as one of the intellectual lights of the realm, all Japanese deem him particularly fitted for the post of foreign minister. He is popularly supposed to be more at home in French than in his mother tongue and during his long residence in Russia as ambassador acquired a knowledge of the Russian language. Also he speaks English readily. Regarded as one of Japan's scholars, he is also considered by the Japanese as a perfect type of a cultured Japanese gentleman. "The deeply influenced by European civilization," says one writer, "Viscount Motono remains ever a true samurai. It was his personal character as well as his capacity which made friendship with Russia possible and voiced this friendship practically into an alliance."

Baron Goto has been sometimes called the "Japanese Roosevelt" and is popularly regarded as pro-German. He is a grandson of Choei Takano, one of the pioneer progressives of the latter Tokugawa who was put to death by the Tokugawa government for his denunciation of the policy of excluding foreigners. Goto was educated for the profession of medicine and in 1890 he went to Germany, receiving the degree of doctor of medicine from the University of Berlin. In Japan he became a leading authority on health and sanitation. He was sanitary commissioner during the Japan-China war. Later he established a reputation as an executive while civil administrator of Formosa. His vigorous administration of that island won him promotion and distinction until finally he became known as Japan's great colonist-organizer. He displayed ability as the first president of the South Manchurian railway, the company becoming an independent organ of colonial administration of Manchuria.

Goto Heads Railway Board

On the formation of the second Katsura ministry in 1903 Baron Goto was offered the portfolio of minister of communications, taking the presidency of the new Imperial railway board as an additional post. In the present cabinet he will again be president of the railway board in succession to Dr. J. Soyera. When the Katsura ministry created a colonial bureau exercising supreme control over Formosa, the Manchurian leased territory, Saghalien and Korea, Baron Goto, who had suggested its formation, became its vice president and pursued his constructive colonial program.

A very romantic incident marked his earlier career. His daring imagination and strong sympathies induced him to take part in a quixotic plan to rescue a former daimyo from the hands of a band of supposed persecutors. The daimyo had been imprisoned by relatives on the plea of insanity. Goto's activities resulted in his arrest and imprisonment on the charge of complicity in obtaining illegal possession of the imprisoned nobleman. But his motives were found to be honorable. He was acquitted and restored to his official position. It is a coincidence that the judge who examined him was his present colleague, Minister Nakajoshi.

Because Goto has a strong, resourceful manner, loving power and influence the Japanese have come to name him "The Japanese Roosevelt."

"You may call us a 'super-party' cabinet if you like," Baron Goto exclaimed to a Japanese interviewer. He added: "Some people call the Teruchi ministry bureaucratic. Let them call it what they wish. We do not care for names. We have no connection with any party but we believe that honesty and sincerity will win the confidence of the people."

YOUNG KNOX SEEKS DIVORCE

Son of Former Secretary of State
Now Member of the Reno Colony

Reno, Nev., Nov. 25.—Philander C. Knox, Jr., son of the former Secretary of State and Senator-elect from Pennsylvania, today completed the period of residence here necessary to give him citizenship and a standing in the courts of Nevada. Which is taken to mean that the case of Knox versus Knox will be filed in the divorce court at an early date. Young Mr. Knox has made no secret of his purpose in taking up residence in Reno. Soon after his arrival he announced that he was here to get a divorce and would make desertion the basis for his suit.

Ever since young Knox eloped from Providence, R. I., in March, 1910, with Miss Mae G. Bolter, a pretty shopgirl, the path of romance has been a very thorny one for the young couple. It was while he was a student at a preparatory school that the youth met and fell in love with the Auburn-haired salesgirl. After a whirlwind courtship they eloped and traveled vainly thru three states before they could find a clergyman to perform the marriage ceremony. Finally a minister in Burlington, Vt., united the runaways. With his bride young Knox went to his father's home in Washington for the parental blessing. But forgiveness was withheld and he was summarily told by his father that having married to suit his fancy he could get out and hustle for himself.

The young man got a job selling motor cars, but something must have gone wrong with the trade that year because he soon turned to other lines of business. But they, too, failed to bring the success he sought. Papa Knox then relented and took the young couple to live with him in his handsome country home at Valley Forge. This helped some, but only for a time. One fine spring morning the young husband packed his bag and departed for Bermuda, without the formality of kissing his wife good-bye. Later there was a reconciliation and the young couple went to reside at Charleston, W. Va., but again the path of romance hit a rocky road and the young couple separated, this time for good. Young Mrs. Knox took up her residence in New York, and announced her purpose to seek fame behind the footlights. A few months later the signature of "P. C. Knox, Jr." appeared on the register of the Reno Y. M. C. A. and the glad hand was extended to the newcomer by the divorce lawyers.

GOOD BUSINESS YESTERDAY

Yesterday, especially in the afternoon, witnessed a very good day among the merchants of the city. Clothing and dry goods men were especially busy while the hardware and other lines had their full share. Grocers came in for a bit of the rush also and as a whole the day seemed quite good in the way of trade.

Mrs. Guy Bender of Alexander was a visitor with city people yesterday.

NOTABLE BIRTHDAYS TODAY

November 26

Hon. Albert B. Fall, United States Senator for New Mexico, who has come into national prominence because of his familiarity with Mexican affairs, is 55 years old today. Senator Fall is fluent in Spanish, and knows more about internal politics of Mexico than any man at Washington.

In the recent campaign Mr. Hughes called Senator Fall as a special adviser on Mexican affairs in the preparation of his speeches criticizing the course of the administration in that respect, the senator having been a particularly severe critic of Mr. Wilson's Mexican policies. Senator Fall is a native of Kentucky, largely self-educated, who early went to the Southwest and now is a large owner of farming (mining and stock-raising property in New Mexico and Mexico. He is a Republican, and his term expires in 1919. For several years he has been a severe and open critic of the policy of the United States toward Mexico as shaped by President Wilson.

Congressman John C. Linthicum of Maryland, reelected Nov. 7, 49 years old today.

Which Do You Prefer?

Pullman or Freight?

No one would think of riding in a freight car if he could enjoy the comfort of a big, comfortable easy riding Pullman parlor car.

So with automobiles. Most of the popular priced cars ride like freight cars. This is due to the old fashioned type of spring.

Many manufacturers still continue to use them.

The Overland does not. The 75 B Overland has the latest type of cantilever shock absorbing springs. As a result it is one of the easiest riding cars in the world. One demonstration will prove this. $635 f. o. b. Toledo.

MAVERICKS

You come to us but once a year. Here's a hall to you Thanksgiving. Tho' to do it costs us dear. We're glad just to keep on living.

This is also the open season on elective officers.

No we are not downhearted. Millikin must play Illinois here next year.

Smith—What is all that crowd doing in front of Jones' house?
Brown—Why he just bought a bushel of coal.

With the election and the Illinois Millikin football game over and President Wilson's proclamation for Thanksgiving issued we can have a brief breathing spell before we begin our Christmas shopping.

A marriage license was issued in Springfield the other day to John Verdun. If John is as turbulent as the town of that name his wife will have an awful time living with him.

There have been threats on the life of Li Yuan-hung president of the Chinese republic. His name is suggestive of violence.

With eggs selling at 45 cents a dozen, the man who has two or three dozen hens that are not laying an egg is tempted to lose his religion.

We wonder if Capt. Sutherland of Millikin when he prayed during the Illinois game asked the Lord to forgive the Millikin player who jumped on Whisler's head when he was lying prostrate on the ground?

The State Journal speaking of turkeys says, "the high price makes the 'festive' bird a scarcity in the market." However, most of us can't see any jest about it.

After a week's experience on the grand jury we wonder why any man in his right mind tries to get on the job.

All of the Mexican laborers in the employ of the Atchison, Topeka and Santa Fe railroad are to be disinfectant. While we believe it to be a good sanitary move we fear it may cause a famine in the disinfectant market.

The price of ice cream remains the same and it seems to us that someone said last summer that ice cream is a very nourishing food.

A Bloomington man who bet 5 to 1 on Hughes was adjudged insane the other day. It is thought that the wager weakened his mind. In our opinion his mind was pretty weak when he made the bet.

Some doctor has figured out that a year has been added to each man's life by serving with the army on the Mexican border. It is probable that most of the men serving would rather lose the year.

The State Register is shedding large crocodile tears because Illinois did not go to Wilson. The Register says that the state must be regenerated. It is probable that it will be many years before the people of Illinois will select the State Register as the Moses to lead them into the ways of righteousness.

Things to Be Thankful For
Mr. Hughes that it wasn't any worse.

President Wilson that California went Democratic.

Harry Overmeyer that he couldn't get any more bets on Hughes.

Governor elect Lowden that he will now be able to hire somebody to milk the cows.

The Democrats that they elected a president.

The Republicans that they carried Illinois.

Walt Miser that he is living in Peoria.

Bill Camp that the women's skirts are going to be longer.

That the price of oysters hasn't been raised.

That we have in our winter's supply of coal.

That the grand jury has adjourned.

Illinois that she won't have to play Millikin again until next year.

Carranza that Wilson is president.

Vila likewise, tho' he plays the bet copper.

AN OLD TIME VEHICLE.

Arthur Swain of Sinclair has a wagon which his father bought of Milo Gray of this place forty eight years ago for $130. Mr. Swain says the original wheels are still in use and he expects it to last two years more so as to round out the half century. Of course some of the parts have been renewed but the wheels show how well vehicles were made in those early days.

The late Dr. Henry Jones paid John W. Hall $450 for a single buggy about 45 years ago and prices higher than that were paid for similar vehicles made in this place. Of course everything was made by hand and made well and conscientiously.

WILLARD W. C. T. U. NOTES

(The Good Time Coming, Concluded)

"There's a good time coming,
A good time coming;
The pen shall supersede the sword,
And Right, not Might shall be the lord.

In the good time coming,
Worth, Not Birth, shall rule mankind.

And be acknowledged stronger;
The proper impulse has been given;
Wait a little longer.

There's a good time coming,
A good time coming;
Hateful rivalry of creed
Shall not make their martyrs bleed

In the good time coming,
Religion shall be shorn of pride,
And flourish all the stronger;
And charity shall trim her lamp;
Wait a little longer.

There's a good time coming,
A good time coming;
Let us aid it all we can,
Every woman every man,
The good time coming.

"Smallest helps," if rightly given,
Make the impulse stronger;
'Twill be strong enough one day;
Wait a little longer.

MAKING DIMES AND DOLLARS GO FURTHER

W. H. Deppe in a communication to the Beardsdown Star gives some wholesome advice about the way to cut living expenses when high prices are prevailing. He says that "the way to do now is to quit living high, use only such things as you must have, don't cut into 40c butter as you would into 25c butter of the same excellent quality. Buy not less of the things of positive necessity but more, when and where you get absolutely the best bargain, so that you will be protected against future rise of price. I do not believe that agitation or investigation is going to stop the upward tendency of prices. This will come when wide conditions have changed. Economy and prudence are the real remedies in this crisis."

Try peanut oil in salad dressing instead of olive oil. It is cheaper, just as nutritious and to many more palatable.

In making griddle cakes or biscuit an excellent substitute for sour milk is 1 tablespoonful of vinegar to 1 cup of cold water, and soda the same as for sour milk.

Less sugar is required if added to fruit when it is cooling instead of while cooking.

Glass percolator tops will last much longer if before using the top is placed in cold water, brought slowly to the boiling point and then cooled in the water.

A very good cake can be made without butter, eggs or milk and is very economical in view of the present high prices of these articles. Put in a sauce pan the following and boil three minutes, then cool: 1 cup brown sugar, 1 cup water, 2 cups seeded raisins, 1-2 teaspoon cloves, 1-3 cup lemon, 1-2 teaspoon cloves, 1-3 cup soda dissolved in a little warm water. Then add two cups flour in which 1-2 teaspoon of baking powder has been sifted. Bake in loaves in moderate oven. This is also good served with sauce as pudding.

Here is a way to utilize stale bread crusts: Brown crusts thoroughly in a slow oven and grind in food chopper, using coarsest knife. When ready to bake bread take 1 quart of the ground crumbs and scald with boiling water. Then add 1-2 cup of lard, 1 cup of sugar and 1 tablespoon salt. Let cool then add 1 pint lukewarm water and 1 cup yeast, and stir thick with white flour. Let rise until light and make into loaves. When light bake one hour in moderate oven.

A saucer of left over peaches and shredded pineapple may be combined into a delicious dessert by the following method: Mash the fruit and to each cupful of pulp and juice add a tablespoonful of cornsyrup dissolved in a little warm water. Sweeten to taste and cook until clear. Pour into mold and when cold serve with plain or whipped cream. Other combinations of fruit may be used in the same manner.

Shin of beef is ordinarily regarded as unfit for use except in soup making but it can be made into a very economical and appetizing dish by this method: Put a round of the skin bone in a stew pan with hot water enough to cover it and put, on the back of the stove where it will not boil and let stand for three hours. Then try it and if tender cover with chopped vegetables, carrots, turnips, potatoes, etc., and a little onion and parsley. Let it simmer for an hour. Take up the meat, drain the vegetables and put them around it. Thicken and brown the gravy and put it over all.

The small ends of paraffin candles may be melted and used for covering jelly, marmalade, etc.

Instead of using a curved hook for stringing up a clothes line use a right angled hook and put a snool on it. This will prevent the cutting and rusting of the line and thus prolong its period of usefulness.

Whipped cream for a dessert may be made to go much farther by this method: Put a ripe banana thru a potato ricer, add the juice of half a lemon, a tablespoonful of sugar, and a pinch of salt. Take up the meat, drain the vegetables and put them around it. Thicken and brown the gravy and put it over all.

Kindergarten's Future Must Rest With "Snapshots."

At 9 o'clock Friday morning, December the 1st the seat sale to the Free Kindergarten play "Snapshots" will open at the Grand Opera House. The show will be given on Monday evening, December 4th. The happenings within those four days will probably decide whether the kindergarten at the David Prince school will continue or close. If the play is well attended the Kindergarten board will perhaps be able to realize sufficient funds to carry on the work, otherwise, the future is most uncertain. The board feels that citizens will attend "Snapshots" for two reasons. To obtain a good laugh and to help a most worthy charitable institution. The play is rapidly rounding into form, the cast is working hard and obtaining results. Miss Millicent Rowe who is directing the play states that in her opinion will be much more enjoyed than the "Union Depot for a Day" which was given here two years ago and was so popular. The plays are, in some respects similar but "Snapshots" is much more clever. The school children are selling many but tickets may be secured at Hillerby's, Peacock Inn, Farmer State Bank or Hoppers, at any time and may be exchanged for reserved seat on and after December 1st. The best seat in the house may be obtained for a dollar.
